2. BACKGROUND:

Ice Cream Specialties has initiated a recall of a various peanut-containing ice cream novelties produced in its Indiana plant because they have the potential to be contaminated with Salmonella, an organism which can cause serious and sometimes fatal infections in young children, frail or elderly people, and others with weakened immune systems.

These ice cream novelties are sold nationwide at retail stores, convenience stores and possibly in vending machines

There have been no reported illnesses related to our products to date.
